Judge Rising went to Reno last evening.

Miss Josie Kelly left for San Francisco last night.

Owen Pearce, late of the Mint force, has gone to California to reside.

There was quite a lively scrap in front of the Briggs house yesterday afternoon.

Col. James Orndorff passed up to the Comstock yesterday, for the first time in nearly ten years.

Ernest Harting and Jake Gray have arrived at their new abode and donned the striped suits.

Mr. H. A. Young, who succeeds W. H. Christler as Captain of the Mint Watch, has arrived in Carson.

E. R. Dodge and F. H. Norcross, of Reno, passed a successful examination before the Supreme Court yesterday, to practice law in Nevada.

Every child who buys ten cents worth of candy or nuts at Adams' candy store has an opportunity of getting back any sum from ten cents to a dollar.

Rev. F. L. Nash Pastor. Morning subject: "The Coming Kingdom." Evening subject: "Vacation Notes and Recollections."

On Friday evening an immense meteor passed over the coast and was seen from a dozen different towns. It exploded with a noise like thunder and left a cloud of bluish smoke in the western horizon which expanded and remained visible for more than a half hour.

Merchant E. Perry, a boy sixteen years old, was arrested at Fort Wayne, Ind., for threatening to blow up the biggest buildings in town. He carried in his pockets the chemicals and other ingredients for making dynamite bombs. He is a reader of dime novels and has studied chemistry.

A. C. Pratt was in town yesterday to meet parties from Alpine county who go to South Camp to take charge of the boarding house at that place. It is the purpose of the Company to turn all their old workings to the depth of 100 feet, over to tributaries to be worked on shares. The cost of milling the ore is $5 per ton, and board costs $5 per week. The ore mills from $10 up, and it is thought miners who have had experience in working small ledges can make fair wages. Five claims are now being worked in the district and about twenty-five men are employed.—Genoa Courier.

From The Kennedy New Era.

There is soon to be a wedding in Kennedy.

A white laundry would do well in Kennedy.

Four Chinamen arrived in town by Monday's stages. The Chinese are getting a firm foothold.

Freight teams are running between Kennedy and Lovelock with much regularity, bringing in general merchandise.

Visitors from Winnemucca say that citizens at the county seat do not propose letting any other town capture the Kennedy trade. Their energy and enterprise is worthy of praise.

There is a mining notice near town that reads: "We claim 1500 feet in a promiscuous direction along the course of this vein. This claim shall be known as the Blue Id Nel."

The first day the registration books were opened, more than forty voters were registered. There are two hundred voters in the precinct today and by fall there will be five hundred or more. We venture the assertion Kennedy will poll a larger vote than any precinct in the State East of Reno.

A reporter on the New Era visited the Imperial mill to note the progress being made. The carpenters are completing the building, parts of which are five stories high, and dressing immense timbers to be placed in the foundation for the battery mortars. The machinists and roustabouts were placing heavy castings in position and lining shafting, and the stone masons had nearly completed the work around the boiler.

Will Hold the Train.

The local train that leaves Reno at 1:25 will be held to enable those who attend the Foley funeral to return the same day.

A WOMAN OF SPIRIT.

Mrs. Foley Will Hang no Crape on the Door.

There is hardly anything talked of in Reno but the killing of Foley. His widow refuses to allow any crape on the door, and also requested her friends to make no public demonstrations at his funeral which takes place today. It is said that out of respect to her wishes the Knights of Pythias of which order deceased was a member, will not turn out. Mrs. Foley has the respect and consideration of the entire community and her spirit is applauded. It is thought that from the course of the bullet, which entered the stomach and lodged in the fleshy part of the thigh, that he was sitting in a chair when the shot was fired, and the fall of the heavy body immediately afterwards was the chair falling to the floor.

Mrs. Hartley claims that she was seduced by Foley and that she expects to become a mother in consequence. The seduction she states took place in her rooms in the Bank building, February 26th.

In case of the birth of the child, the question of inheritance will make an interesting legal question. It is believed that should a child be born to Mrs. Hartley, an event that is likely to take place in a few months, the child will be heir to a portion of the Foley estate, which is estimated to be $200,000. His life was insured in favor of his wife for $150,000. Geo. Baker, Foley's old lawyer arrived yesterday, and it is believed will manage the prosecution of Mrs. Hartley for murder, but the general sentiment in Reno is that no jury can be found who will convict.

Messrs. Goodman and Dodge have taken Mrs. Hartley's case. She is now confined in the jury room of the County building. The furniture of her room in the Bank building has been brought to the County building and she is being made as comfortable as possible.

The Washoe County Coroner's Jury returned the following report in the case of the killing of M. D. Foley:

Before Coroner H. P. Brown. In the matter of the inquisition upon the body of M. D. Foley, deceased:

We the undersigned jurors summoned to appear before H. P. Brown, the Coroner of Washoe County, at his office in Reno, on the 27th day of July, 1894, to inquire into the death of M. D. Foley, having been duly sworn according to law, and having made such inquisition, after inspecting the body, and hearing the testimony adduced, each and all of us do say, that we find that the deceased was named M. D. Foley was a native of New Brunswick, aged about 44 years, and that he came to his death on the 26th day of July, in the township of Reno, county of Washoe, from a gunshot wound inflicted by one Alice M. Hartley, in the Bank of Nevada building.

All of which we duly certify by the inquisition in writing by us signed this 27th day of July, A. D. 1894:

Republican State Central Committee.

Resolutions of respect were adopted to the memory of the late Senator M. D. Foley and Frank Emmett was selected as his successor as member of the Committee from Washoe.

Mrs. Logan Discharged.

Mrs. Logan of Lovelock, who in self defense put an end to her husband's life after he had murdered two men in a cowardly manner by shooting them through the back with a rifle, and after he had threatened to cut her up in small pieces was discharged after a preliminary examination before Justice Young of Lovelock, on the ground of self-defense.

THE GREAT STRIKE.

Court Proceedings at Woodland-- Dynamite Explosion.

Woodland, Cal., July 28.—During the examination of A. R. U. men accused of train wrecking, it was proved that Worden and Hatch were leaders of the crowd of strikers that stole a locomotive and Pullman coach at Lathrop and ran to Stockton.

N. J. Crosby, a Southern Pacific foreman testified that he talked with Worden who said he could make bombs of the very best material.

The manager of the Western Union Telegraph office at Sacramento, was the next called. He handed in telegrams demanded by the Court. There was only one damaging to the defense. This read:

"McClintock, Truckee. — State troops here. You come with all guns and volunteers. You come at once by train without orders."

H. A. Knox.

Chicago, July 28.—An attempt was made after midnight to wreck an engine with dynamite. John Best, a special officer, and Frank Moluk, a switchman, were injured. The engine was lifted from the track and shattered.

Sacramento, July 28.—Governor Markham said this afternoon that he did not think there was any further need for State troops in the field, and that he had decided to order them all home immediately.

Japan Wins the First Round.

Shanghai, July 28.—In addition to the steamer Kowchun, sunk by the Japanese cruiser, all troops on board being drowned, the Chinese Trading Company's steamer Tooman, also being used a transport, has been sunk by the Japanese warship. All steamers of the Chinese Trading Co. are now here, and Chinese merchant steamers have been ordered to remain here until orders from Tien Tsing are received. The Japanese warships have not been injured in the encounter.

Terrible Forest Fires.

Phillips, Wis., July 28.—Three thousand people have been made homeless by the forest fires. Not a building is left standing in the town, and property to the extent of $2,000,000 has been destroyed. Hundreds of men are out fighting the flames without success.

Milwaukee, July 28.—Twenty persons are reported drowned in the lake at Phillips while endeavoring to escape being burned to death by the forest fires.
